LOLITA ARMOUR CARRIED ACROSS THE GANGPLANK

PREMIER ATTACKED OLGA WROTE OF AS HE LEFT KING LOVE, ALSO CASH

Spanish Minister Set On by Assailant as He Entered Carriage and Report Spread that He Had Been Stabbed.

BARCELONA EXCITED AND ANARCHIST ARRESTED

Violence Had Been Looked For, as Senor Maura, Who Was Assailed, is Hated by the Radical Elements.

BARCELONA. Spain, April 12.-Premier Maura was attacked to-day as he was leaving the Palace of the Council-General. A young man, clean shaven rush at the Premier and attempted to strike him with clinched fists.

Senor Maura had just left King Al-fonso, with whom he had paid a visit to the poorhouse. Just as the Premier's carriage was driving off the young as safiant broke through the crowd and small parts in the case.

Metempted t reach him. The greatest

To-day she was dresse confusion prevailed, the bystanders fleethe Premier had been stabbed. The young man waved a handkerchief he ran toward the Premier, shouting

"Good day; long live anarchy." that the assailant of Senor Maura had used a poniard and that he had stabbed his victim to death. The re ports were generally believed at first and it was not until some time after the incident that the excitement was

The assailant was arrested and the Premier's carriage drove off without further incident.

Premier Hated. The attack on Premier Maura was not a surprise; in fact, it was looked for a week ago on his arrival here wit King Alfonso.

The Premier is hated most intensely the Anarchists and Socialists, and summary methods of dealing with his summary methods of dealing with the strike rioters recently robbed him public sympathy, and he is regarded by a certain element as a com non enemy. It was he who ordered the police of Barcelona to make the wholesale ar rests of Anarchists and political sys pects a week ago in anticipation of the King's visit. That he was the author of this order was no secret.

Vigilance Relaxed. A strong guard that has accompanie Premier everywhere since his artiwal prevented the attack before this as open threats have been made against | $3,000.

A slight relaxation in vigilance gave the stabbing followed. Senor Maura assumed office in December last. He had previously been Minister of the Interior, and before that Minister of Justice, which portfolio he resigned because of his unwillingness to accept office under the late Premier and we will save when we get margasta. As Minister of the Interior

BRYAN'S ADMIRER HANGS HIMSELF

frederick Wilke Said that as the Nebraskan Was Out of the Race There Was No. Use Living.

Letters to "Sweetness Honey Bee" She Is Suing for Breach of Promise Breathe of Devo-

SAID HER RELATIVES CALLED HIM BEAUTIFUL.

Send $3,000," This Love Letter Ended-"God Sends Lucre to Good Men," She Once Reminded Him.

More of the quaint correspondence o nese actress, was read by her former lover, Franklyn Marcellus Olds, the elderly retired lawyer, before Judge Waland well dressed in black, known as lace in the Circuit Court to-day, when Foaquin Miguel Artao, made a wild the $50,000 breach of promise suit wa > pale features are crowned with an aureole of bronze hair, was early the court-room, accompanied by her many relatives, who have figured of her brilliant coiffure. Love and "Touches."

All of the letters the young woma wrote to her former flance tingle with words of love, interspersed with gentle requests for an occasional $1,000 or $2,000. There are also a number of "cabled touches," as Mr. Olds's lawyer, Mr. Corwin, termed them. When writing to her "little man" and er "sweetness honey bee," Miss Lans-

Before continuing with the "Count ese's" letters from abroad. Lawyer Corwin called Mrs. Genevieve Rocilo, sister of Mr. Olds's present wife. The witness testified that Mr. Olds did not meet her sister until after the "Countess had failed at the tryst when the lawyer retired from his courtship.

The first of the ardent letters written to Mr. Olds by the plaintiff was dated April 24, 1901. It announced the actress's arrival in Vienna, adding: Eamily Wept with Joy.

"My family wept when I told them al your ploture in a golden heart and l sleep with it. I am so jealous of you.

prised that the former agreed price for the looked-for opportunity to-day and the trousseau had gone up from $1,500 to $3,000. He wrote to that effect. She paralyzed by your money demands and vacillations, but am still loyal and loying. In answer to this I received this cable:

"Crazy sweetheart to see you in Vienna, I need money." ing. In answer to this I received this cable:

"Trazy sweetheart to see you in Vienna. I need money."

"The way I read this cable," said the defendant, "was 'You are a crazy sweetheart to think, of seeing me in Vienna. Send me money. Later the cable was interpreted to mean that Miss Lansdorf was crazy to see me."

On Oct. 16 Mr. Olds got word that here was still $1,300 due on the troussaeau. He sent the money direct to the firm from which the troussau had been purchased. He received a received bill, showing that a $2,000 purchase had bought only towels, linen, bed clothing, silk stockings and feathers."

You don't need $1,000 for that?"

"You don't need $1,000 for that?"

"You don't need $1,000 for that?"

tion and Dollars.

'Countess'' Olga Landsdorff, the Vien-

The young woman, whose delicate SAYS HATTIE TRIED To-day she was dressed entirely black, except for a lavender .straw ing in all directions and shouting that creation trimmed with pink honeysuckles that added to the sunset effect

dorff was on a sixteen months' trip abroad at his expense buying her trous that was beautiful about you. I have After telling how beautiful her relaives thought Mr. Olds was from his photograph, there is an abrupt change of subject and a peremptory request for tune of $250,000 to her in her will, Mrs.

to accept office under the late Premier flagsats. At Minister of the Interior accept the authority of the Interior accept the authority of the Interior of the Interior accept the authority of the Interior of the Millistry of the Interior to greater against the accept the acc she didn't steal them, that Mr. Myers stole them."

"I asked Hattie if she would go to my lawyer, Mr. Weil, and repeat the state-ment that Mr. Myers had stolen my papers. She said she would, but when we got to Mr. Weil's she denied that she had ever said any such thing. Hattie told Mr. Weil she denied that she had ever said any such thing. Hattie told Mr. Weil that I didn't owe her anything, but that she owed me $25 on a note.

"'As soon as I get married I'll pay Mrs. Ireland the $1. said Hattie."

"Then why don't you get married, Hattie?" asked Mr. Weil.
"I can't get married now, said Hattie, 'because the man I am engaged to is already married."

"There was light enough to see that the robber was a negro. He fied by the fire-escape, after. **gruggling with Bishop Frederick Wilke. sixty years old, hanged himself to-day at his home, herman avenue and Fourth street, and the career of William J. Bryan, and yesterday he told his friends now use of living. Will give a race there was no use of living. Wilk ided a rope to a hook in the worden mit. He warmest and most if. His feet were resting on the edge of the calling of the strangulation was always. The strangulation was always in the present suit."

**No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when we leave the church in will give you $200 back."

*No, but when

DOCTOR'S WIFE CHOKED, ROBBED

TO CHOKE HER

Mrs. Mary Ireland Testifies that

Harriet Haines Was Employed

by Her Merely as a Servant

Mrs. Ireland is the antithesis of Miss to read and write and cipher."

owed her nothing when I dismissed her at $10 a Month.

omposed.

Ireland said:

Caller Seized Her Beside Telephone in Her Home, Knocked Her Down, Snatched Chatelaine Bag and Escaped.

A general alarm was sent out by the of the young man who attacked and sawar in her home, at No. 304 Henry

Mrs. Mussawar was at home alone tract made in 1897, drew a crowd to the except for two servants, when a young man of dark complexion wearing a dark suit of clothes and a light overcoat rang the bell at 2.30 P. M. vesterday. Haines. Her hair is silvery white, but A servant opened the door and the her eye is keen, her manner calm and young man inquired for the doctor. He prisoner is concerned. The only ws told the doctor was not at home modulated voice, choosing good English, and the caller said it was very impor-which helped her emphatic denial of tant and wanted to know where he the testimony of Miss Haines and her could find the doctor.

sister that the former had "taught her The servant consulted with Mrs. Mussawar and the latter went to the door. Regarding Miss Haines's claim that She said that if the call was urgent disengaged. she could telephone to where the doctor Mrs. Ireland had not only promised to pay her $10,000 cash and $1,000 a year was. The caller said it was most urgent and followed Mrs. Mussawar into to be her companion and secretary the rest of her life, but wanted to adopt the room containing the telephone. Mrs. Mussawar was about to take the receiver, from the hook when the caller attacked her. He threw both hands "I employed her as my maid. She about her throat and choked her so that scrubbed floors, hung curtains, put down she could not scream. The servants had retired to the back of the house. As he choked her the man grabbed the chatelaine hanking to her weist, and agreed to pay her 10 a month, and after knocking her down by a blow ran ownd her pothing when I dismissed her more than five minutes.

The police found that the apartment of Mrs. W. J. Moore, on the top floor, had also been entered. A me feast of cold meats end pastry had been made by the virtor, who also walked off with Mr. Moore's clothing, leaving his own. In the pocket of a coat left behind was found a pawn-ticket by which the police hope to find the negro.

Nearly all of the thirty robberies of the past month happened on the block, Pifty-first street, between Eighth and Ninth avanues. more than five minutes.

ALLEGED BOOK THIEF HELD. Leon Gomberg Is Put Under $1,500

TUCKER ADMITS RESCUED SISTERS SHEATH WAS HIS

Police Allege Suspect in Page Murder Confessed to Them that He Owned Knife Case Found in Fish Wagon.

that the hunting knife sheath found in the fish wagon by Arthur W. Woodward It makes fittle difference

Pomfret, the Auburndale dentist, finds that the model of Tucker's front their sleeping apartments in the rear. so far as tracing that article to the tion's theory that derer of Mabel Page had only one hand

The police received this sheath from young Woodward last Safurday morning. It had been found in the fish wagon that night, after Tucker's ar-

While Chief Shaw was examining him at the West Newton police station the sheath was brought into the room. "Did you ever see that before?" asked of your ulster. "Yes, that belongs to me,"

Removed from His Vessel at the Request of Friend, Who Said He Was Unmanageable-He Is Known in New York.

NORFOLK, Va., April 12.-R. Maso tives, who are wealthy, live Charles Dexter, by Cindianati, Leo A.

FROM FLAMES

Two Women Carried Out of House Unconscious by Brave Neighbors, Who Fought Their Way Through Dense Smoke.

NEWTON, Mass., April 12.—Charles the fourth story and basement brown-. Tucker has admitted, the police say, stone house at No. 53 West Thirty-ninth Mme. Gullette and Mme. Dray, French The fire was discovered by Dr. Mc. Phatter, of No. 60 West Fortieth street, of Dr. Pomfret's reproduction of the in which the fire occurred. He saw the form of the teeth of the accused young reflection of the flames and turned in an man will be in supporting the prosecu- alarm to headquarters and afterward gripped by the teeth because the mur- to arouse the inmates of the threatened

> His cries aroused James Hughes and Francis Glassope, of No. 59 West Thirty-ninth street, who ran to the burning house to assist the tenants. They entered the hall and stumbled over the body of Mme. Dray, who was unconscious. They carried her into the air, where she revived and begged them to save her sister.

Hughes and Glasscoe ran back and ought their way through the smoke to the rear of the first floor, where they found Mme. Gullotte lying unconscious on the floor. Mme. Dray had atempted to save her, but began to feel weak and had managed to get as far as Gullotte was taken out by Hughes and Glasscoe and attended by Dr. McPhatter. She was unconscious for several

Both sisters were carried to the home of Mrs. Du Tassey, a friend, at No. 57
West Thirty-ninth street.
The upper part of the building was devoted to bacheior apartments, two of the occupants, Stanley Evans and Robert Vanderblit Shaw, being in at the time. Evans and a friend who was with him aroused Shaw, and the three found escape by the stairs cut off by the dense smoke.
All three made their way to the roof in their nightclothes, and after a time in their nightclothes, and after a time. All three made their way to the roof a their nightclothes, and after a time ere let down through the roof of No. 47.
The damage to the building was esimated at $1,000.

MRS. HENDRICKS WINS AND GETS BOY

Massachusetts Justice Rules that New York Court's Decision in Favor of the Mother Is Valid and He Concurs.

BOSTON, April 12.-By an order of the Massachusetts Supreme Court to-day Mrs. Agnes Mary Hendricks, of Brookis given the custody of he seven-year-old son Thomas, who has een confined at the House of the Ange Guardian, this city, for several weeks The order was issued by Justice Lathrop after a brief hearing on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Judge dricks's legal custody of the child was valid, and there was nothing left for him to do but concur with it and allow the home.

Mrs. Hendricks to take her child from the home.

Mrs. Hendricks was so overjoyed when she heard the decision that she swooned. In a few moments she recovered and expressed herself as too happy to care for anything now. She wanted to know how soon she could obtain her child and desired her counsel to start at once with her to the home in Roxbury that she might see the little fellow.

The father of the lad. Dr. Check. Lathrop ruled that a decision by the fellow.

The father of the lad. Dr. Charles C. Hendricks, who placed the boy in the institution, opposed the petition. The action for custody of the child is in connection with divorce proceedings brought by Mrs. Hendricks against her husband, the woman claiming that he had taken the boy from her illegally.

NEW YORK, April 12 .- President Pul iam, of the National Baseball League. announced the following contracts and releases to-day: Contracts-With Borton, L. P. Geler, P. J. Moran and J. L. Stewart.

OF THE STEAMER THAT IS TO TAKE HER TO EUROPE. LOLITA ARMOUR OFF FOR VIENNA

Chicago Child Goes to Have Dr. Lorenz Assist Her to Get Mastery of Her Powers of Walking.

SHE LOVES THE GREAT PHYSICIAN VERY MUCH.

Girl's Father, J. Ogden Armour, Has Spent More than $50,-000 to Ameliorate Crippled Condition of Daughter.

Little Miss Lolita Armour sailed to lay in a bower of roses and a perfect onfectionery store of candy on the big Kaiser Wilhelm II., to have Dr. Lo renz, in Vienna, do what he could to assist her to walk.

"I like-I love-Dr. Lorenz ver much," the child said to an Evening World reporter, after she had reached her stateroom, "and I know that when come back I shall be able to walk perfectly."

J. Ogden Armour, who has spent more than $50,000 to have his daughter's crippled condition mended, carried her thoard the steamer at the pier in Ho boken. She wore a large white hat, a box cont, white stockings and pat ent leather shoes

They were closely followed by two maids and by Mrs. Armour, who wor a hellotrope gown with a hat covered Suit Filled with Flowers.

A suft of three cabins had been re served for the party and friends had filled them with flowers and fruits and had sent enough candy to little Lolits to last her for a trip around the world. She was the first child Dr. Lorenz operated on in this country. Her father, who is now the head of the sent for Dr. Lorenz and got him to come from Vienna by paying an eno mous fee. It was said that the "bloodless" open ation mended the congenital dislocation of the hip, but since the plaster cas-was taken out the culid has not been of the hip, but save the child has not been able to walk perfectly.

The trip is now being made to Vienna to have the famous surgeon teach the child how to walk. Mr. Armour said that he had every confidence in the

Will Live with Dr. Lorenz. He said that he and his family would leave the boat at beginen and proceed at once to vienna, where they wound go to live with Dr. Lorenz. how long he would take to teach the cond the proper use of her nev nerves and muscles he could not say. He thought, nowever, that the summer menus would suffice.

ever, that the summer mentus would suffice.

On the boat the calld was the happlest person, with the possible exception of her pretty mother. Many friends had gone over to itoooken to see them off. All of these were admitted to the suit, and the scene, until saling time, was lively.

Lolita had a cheerful word for all and she kept the stewards busy with her little orders about sending messages of forewell to her little friends in Chicago and New York.

Concerning the trip Mrs. Armour said:

"We agreed when Prof. Lorenz optrated upon Lolita that we would take her over to Europe to see him in a year. We do not expect that a second operative the fact we will be excessive. In fact, we Gullotte was taken out by Hughes and Glassoce and attended by Dr. McPhatter. She was unconscious for several hours.

Both sisters were carried to the home of Mrs. Du Tassey, a friend, at No. 57

We do not expect that a second open thou will be necessary. Lolita is getting alous splendidly. She has perfect mobility the does not know how to use the splendid of the second open that a second open though the second open that a second open though the second open that a s learning to waik after similar operations."

Lolita Armour was born in 1896 with double dislocation of the hips. Prof.
Lorenz gave up a professorship in a great university for a time to come to America to operate upon her. The operation was performed at the home of the Armours in Chicago, Oct. 12, 1902.

Prof. Lorenz's operations upon and cures of born cripples have gained him fame all over the civilized world.
During his visit to this country he performed a number of operations.

AMONG THE DEAD SHE ENDED LIFE

Refined-Looking Woman, After Concealing Her Identity, Drinks Poison, and Her Body Is Found in the Cemetery.

Deep mystery surrounds the identity of a woman of about thirty-five years whose body was found in the woods back of Greenfield Cemetery, at Hemp-

Chips ... Lb. 150
SPECIAL FOR WEDNESDAY.
Butter Scotch Chips tilled with Chocolate Cream ... Lb. 100
Chocolate Blackberry Jelly Lb. 150 Loft SA BARCLAY ST

plays the piano like the great pianists

HE IDEAL is the perfection of piano players. It plays any kind of music and any kind of piano-square, upright, grand -and any one can play it.

The IDEAL is the only piano player that plays all the music of other players. The advantage is apparent, as you can exchange your music rolls with friends who possess other makes of piano players, thus avoiding the expense of joining a library.

With an IDEAL in your home you have the perpetual privilege of coming to us and exchanging any roll of music you have for a new roll on the payment of the small fee of 10c.

The IDEAL is a marvel. dozen hands, so to speak, touch the keys of the IDEAL, producing powerful orchestral effects or the most liquid tones. Yet a child may play it.

Ideal Recitals Every Day

Glad to have you come and ask us to play anything you want —or try the IDEAL yourself in the privacy of the IDEAL room. Whether you buy the IDEAL for cash or on easy monthly pay-ments we present you with $25 worth of music of your own selection absolu'e'u free. An expert player of the IDEAL is at your service and will give lessons at your home without charge.

ANDERSON & CO., 370 Fulton St., near Smith, BROOKLYN.

To Whom Will You Your Eyes

Did you ever hear of a skilled RELIABLE PHYSICIAN having bargain sales, offering to cure disease for "ONE WEEK ONLY" at half price? Would you trust yourself to one who did?

A CORRECT EYE EXAMINATION as practised by the foremost oculists nation of the interior of the eye mus be made; that each eye MUST BE EXAMINED SEPARATELY; that the be used in a DARKENED ROOM-NOT "OVER A SHOWCASE" IN NOT "OVER A SHOWCASE" BROAD DAYLIGHT.

Why risk your eyes by buying "bargain counter" glasses when you can have thorough professional service of the highest order?

EYEGLASSES, IF REQUIRED; $1 up. M.H. Harris FYESIGHT SPECIALIST.

348 Sixth Ave. bet 21st and 22d sts. 50 East 125th St. cor. Madison ave. Harlem Office Open Evenings.

The best time to order your Gas Range

Is Now it will COOK PERFECTLY, SAVE YOU TIME, MONEY AND LABOR.

And can be RENTED for $3.00 a year.

> SEE THE GAS COMPANY.

If your Gas Burners are unsatisfac-tory send word to the Gas Company, addressing the "Gas Information Bu-reau."

SPECIALS DAY SALE

SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK MONDAY WONDE